[illegible] is access to evidence (including [illegible]) [illegible] in possession of U.S. intelligence [illegible] visibility on this material, both within [illegible] and material already removed [illegible]. Criminal investigative [illegible] must be [illegible] regarding what material is currently in the possession of the intelligence community, [illegible] descriptive list of the material, and need intelligence community to [illegible] Team through the process of getting material released to criminal investigators. If criminal investigators are required to explicitly ask for specific items, it will be impossible to make progress. They simply do not know what to ask for. Rather, intelligence community must affirmatively produce the material in their possession. Priority to be placed on material that has been translated during intelligence exploitation process as it will not burden limited linguist/translation assets.

Short fuse: Immediate access to intelligence [illegible] regarding [redacted] SecDef seeking input regarding ability of DoD to court-martial [redacted] in event DOJ backs off from a U.S. District Court proceeding. Currently we have only been able to provide information developed by CID interviews of SF personnel who had contact with [redacted] following prison riot.
