

I-03/004974-SO

INFO MEMO

FOR: UNDER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR POLICY

FROM: Joseph J. Collins, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Stability Operations

SUBJECT: Measures of Progress for Iraqi Recovery (U)

- (U) You asked for thoughts on metrics and baselines. Here is our first cut.
- (U) DoD is working with State, and the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) to develop measures of progress for our efforts to support Iraq's recovery. Ongoing needs assessments should be geared toward quickly reaching these goals.

(b)(1)

Prepared by: (b)(6) SO/LIC Stability Operations (b)(6)

~~Classified by: Joseph J. Collins, DASD Stability Operations~~

~~Reason: 1.5 (b) and (d)~~

~~Declassify on: 11 April 2013~~

~~SECRET~~

- (U) Although the levels of need in each sector will be different from Afghanistan, the assistance sectors and measures USAID established for Afghanistan in January 2003 (TAB C) are a good example.
- (U) We will coordinate our thoughts and data with (b)(6)

cc:

Bill Luti

Ryan Henry

COORDINATION: None

Attachments:

As stated

~~SECRET~~