U.S.-CHINA JOINT DEFENSE CONVERSION COMMISSION
MINUTES OF THE FIRST MEETING-BEIJING, OCTOBER 17, 1994

Appendix II

STRUCTURE AND PROCEDURES OF
THE JOINT DEFENSE CONVERSION COMMISSION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

The United States of America and the People's Republic of China, desiring to promote the cooperation between the two countries in defense conversion, have decided to establish the Joint Defense Conversion Commission of the United States of America and the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as the "Joint Commission") and to adopt the following.

Section One Purposes

The Joint Commission has the following purposes: to facilitate economic cooperation and technological exchanges and cooperation between the two countries regarding defense conversion, to maintain regular contacts through government channels, and to address issues that occur in the course of cooperation and explore new areas of and approaches to cooperation.

Section Two Organization

The Joint Commission is composed of the Chinese and American sides. Each side has a chairman, members, and an executive secretary on the Commission. The chairman of each side will inform the other side of the Commission members of each side and of any change in members. The Joint Commission may set up, as needed, ad hoc special working groups which may function in accordance with this document.

Section Three Operating Procedures

The meetings of the Joint Commission will convene as deemed necessary by both chairmen, the site to rotate between the two countries. The commission meetings are presided over by the co-chairmen. In the absence of the co-chairmen, the meetings shall be presided over by Commission members designated by them. One or two months prior to the meeting, both sides will discuss and agree on the date of the meetings and exchange preliminary proposed agenda for the meeting. The executive secretaries and the working groups of the two sides will make preparations for the meetings and agree in principle on the meeting minutes one month before the meeting starts.

The Joint Commission will review at its meeting the items on the agenda and relevant issues for discussion as agreed between the co-chairmen.

The decisions agreed upon by both sides in the meeting will be written into the meeting minutes and will go into effect after the meeting minutes are signed by the co-chairmen.

If one side of the Joint Commission needs to obtain the approval of the relevant government department of its country for a decision recorded in the meeting minutes, the decision in question will become effective after the chairman of the side informs the other side of its approval.

The minutes of the Joint Commission will be written in Chinese and English, both versions being equally authentic. The appendixes of the meeting minutes constitute an integral part of the meeting minutes.

Section Four The Duties of the Executive Secretary

The executive secretary of each side will be a member of the Joint Commission, be responsible for daily work, coordinate the activities of the special working groups, prepare the documents for the meetings of the Joint Commission, and fulfill other duties in connection with the activities of the Joint Commission.

The executive secretaries of both sides will maintain contact with each other.

Section Five Expenditures

Except as otherwise agreed, each side will be responsible for all costs that its members incur.

Section Six Amendments

With the agreement of both sides, the Joint Commission may revise and amend this document.

Section Seven Effective Date

Dating from October 17, 1994, the Joint Commission will be in operation for five years. Unless one side informs the other of its desire to terminate the Commission at least six months prior to its expiration, then the Commission shall be extended for 5 additional years. The Commission may be terminated by either side upon six months written notice.

U.S.-CHINA JOINT DEFENSE CONVERSION COMMISSION
MINUTES OF THE FIRST MEETING-BEIJING, OCTOBER 17, 1994

Appendix III

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES
U.S.-CHINA JOINT DEFENSE CONVERSION COMMISSION

The United States of America and the People's Republic of China, recognizing that the peaceful use of military industrial technology is in the economic and national security interests of their peoples, declare their intention to promote cooperation in their defense conversion efforts. To this end, and the United States of America and the People's Republic of China have established a U.S.-China Joint Defense Conversion Commission to promote the orderly use, for peaceful purposes, of defense industrial, technological and scientific facilities and personnel not needed for defense requirements to satisfy the requirements of civil society.

The Joint Defense Conversion Commission will provide a senior channel of communication between the Governments of the United States of America and the People's Republic of China to promote mutual understanding of, and cooperation on, issues relating to the defense industry, including:

- * facilitating contacts between the industries of the two countries and promoting appropriate industrial partnerships, technological relationships, and investment by American firms in China, and by Chinese firms in the U.S.;
- * sharing experiences and lessons from defense industry conversion in the two countries;
- * rationalizing defense science, technology, and industry conversion planning and management appropriate for peacetime;
- * addressing issues of personnel, equipment, and production of defense industry related to the defense conversion cooperation between the two countries.

The Joint Commission will also explore new areas of and approaches to the cooperation.
