Report to Congress

This report is presented by the Department of Defense in accordance with Title 10 of the United States Code, section 2249c

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This report is presented by the Department of Defense (DoD) in accordance with Title 10 of the United States Code, section 2249c.

The Regional Defense Combating Terrorism Fellowship Program (CTFP) is a DoD security cooperation tool that provides education and training to international security personnel as part of the U.S. global effort to combat terrorism.

The goals of the CTFP are 1) to build and strengthen a global network of combating terrorism experts and practitioners committed to support U.S. efforts against terrorists and terrorist organizations; 2) to build and reinforce the combating terrorism capabilities of partner nations; and 3) to counter ideological support for terrorism.

To achieve these goals, the CTFP provides combatant commanders with resources to foster regional cooperation and to professionalize foreign combating terrorism capabilities. The program provides targeted combating terrorism education to key senior and mid-level military officials, ministry of defense civilians, and other foreign security officials. Personnel recommended for the CTFP by the combatant commands are expected to have a positive impact on their country's ability to cooperate with the United States in the war on terrorism.

The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Special Operations and Low Intensity Conflict (ASD SO/LIC) provides program policy oversight and management, and the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA) provides financial management.

This report accounts for the expenditure of appropriated funds during Fiscal Year 2006 (FY06) for the CTFP, including: the countries that received CTFP funding; the total amount of funding provided for each country; and the educational courses attended by the foreign officers and officials. The report also includes an assessment of the effectiveness of the program and a review of DoD's efforts to improve the program.

As detailed in the report, the CTFP sponsored multiple combating terrorism educational events in FY06. These events involved 3,392 security personnel from 133 countries, and the CTFP conducted programs in 33 foreign countries, all with the goal of meeting the needs identified by the regional combatant commanders.

The contents of this report are unclassified and reflect data gathered from multiple sources, including Security Assistance Organizations, Combatant Commanders, and other DoD entities.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The Regional Defense Combating Terrorism Fellowship Program (CTFP) is focused on combating terrorism (CbT) education and training for mid-level to senior-level foreign military officers, ministry of defense officials, and security officials with CbT responsibilities.
- The CTFP targets strategic and operational-level individuals.
- In FY06, CTFP engaged a total of 3,392 security personnel from 133 countries. In addition to training inside the United States, this included 57 training events in 33 foreign countries, and 14 events at DoD Regional Centers.

I. REGIONAL DEFENSE COMBATING TERRORISM FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE GLOBAL WAR ON TERRORISM (GWOT)

A. OVERVIEW

The Regional Defense Combating Terrorism Fellowship Program (CTFP) enables the Department of Defense (DoD) to assist key countries in the war on terrorism by providing education and training for international military officers and ministry of defense and security officials. The CTFP has become the “go to” program within DoD to develop and strengthen CbT capabilities and capacities of partner nations in the GWOT.

The CTFP’s goals are: 1) to build and strengthen a global network of combating terrorism experts and practitioners committed to participation in support of U.S. efforts against terrorists and terrorist organizations; 2) to build or reinforce the combating terrorism capabilities and capacities of partner nations; and 3) to counter ideological support for terrorism.

The CTFP works hand-in-hand with the combatant commands to identify candidates for educational programs and to develop Combating Terrorism (CbT) programs specifically tailored to partner nations. Combatant commands recommend participants to the Office of the Secretary of Defense for approval. Target candidates include senior and mid-level military officials, ministry of defense civilians, and other foreign security officials who could have an impact on their country’s ability to cooperate with the United States in the Global War on Terrorism. CTFP funds these students to attend programs in the United States and abroad. All personnel are verified in accordance with Sec. 8160 of the Department of Defense Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2007 (P.L. 109-289) (the “Leahy Amendment.”)

B. BACKGROUND

The CTFP funds existing, traditional programs, and newly developed educational activities designed to strengthen individual, country, and regional combating terrorism capabilities and capacities. These programs enable partner countries to address threats of terrorism within their borders more effectively and they help strengthen support for U.S. and coalition efforts to defeat terrorism.

The CTFP has also helped countries recognize the importance of fighting terrorism, and the program is building an international network of individuals who share a common understanding of the terrorist threat. The network, as it grows, will be decreasingly dependent on the United States for support as capabilities for independent activities targeted at terrorism increase.

C. REPORT REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to Title 10 of the United States Code § 2249c (10 U.S.C. Section 2249c), “not later than December 1 of each year, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to Congress a report on the administration of this section during the fiscal year ended in such year.”

This report is submitted by the Department in accordance with 10 U.S.C. Section 2249c:

- (1) A complete accounting of the expenditure of appropriated funds for purposes authorized under subsection (a), including:
  - (A) the countries of the foreign officers and officials for whom costs were paid; and
  - (B) for each such country, the total amount of the costs paid.
- (2) The training courses attended by the foreign officers and officials, including a specification of which, if any, courses were conducted in foreign countries.
- (3) An assessment of the effectiveness of the Regional Defense Combating Terrorism Fellowship Program in increasing the cooperation of the governments of foreign countries with the United States in the global war on terrorism.
- (4) A discussion of any actions being taken to improve the program.

D. SUMMARY OF EXPENDITURES AND TRAINING EVENTS

The following table details CTFP expenditures, by country, within the respective areas of responsibilities of the combatant commanders. It also provides the number of different CTFP training events attended, by country, including those events attended in foreign countries, as well as total training events for each category. Expenditures for individual attendance to Regional Center activities are included in the DoD Regional Centers line at the bottom of the chart. Countries that only have expenditures for Regional Center activities are marked by an asterisk(*) in the chart below.

E. PROGRAM ASSESSMENT AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Assessment

CTFP is one of the few USG programs that trains a broad range of foreign CbT military officers and security officials and provides specialized programs to address individual country needs. CTFP programs include military, national police, gendarmerie, internal security, border security, and other security officials. As such, the program enables the DoD to implement the President’s National Strategy for Combating Terrorism more effectively by providing resources that can be targeted toward integrating the seven elements of national power: military, informational, diplomatic, law enforcement, intelligence, financial, and economic.

Location of CTFP-funded Training and Education

In FY06, 3,392 foreign military and security officials attended CTFP-funded programs, including 57 events in 33 foreign countries in all five Regional Combatant Commands. This included CbT education and training support to emerging regional and sub-regional organizations and alliances. Regional training events are particularly effective in bringing together security officials from many countries within a given region. Such events are crucial in building a robust network of CbT officials who are familiar with each other and are able to reach out to other organizations and countries to coordinate effectively on CbT issues.

CTFP broadened the program's reach in FY06 by funding individuals from 36 countries that had not previously participated in CTFP programs. Also in FY06, Belgium, Saudi Arabia, and Singapore used their own funds to send students to CTFP courses.

Finally, CTFP continues to work closely with U.S. Special Operations Command and the theater Special Operations Commands in order to ensure that their expertise and equities are integrated into engagement strategies.

Accomplishments

The program's accomplishments in FY06 are best summarized by describing the following categories: 1) regional- and country-specific activities; 2) curriculum development; and 3) regional center initiatives.

1. ACCOMPLISHMENTS - REGIONAL AND COUNTRY-SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES

- CTFP funded a mobile training course in Tanzania conducted by the U.S. Coast Guard on "Port Physical Security and Vulnerability Assessments". The course trained 32 mid-to-senior level Tanzanian officials representing a cross-section from customs, police, port authority, and the government Dar es Salaam Maritime Institute. The training helped Tanzanian port and law enforcement officials better identify and protect against vulnerabilities within their ports, as well as lay the groundwork for continued cooperation in enhancing Tanzania's counterterrorism maritime interdiction capabilities.
- CTFP funded an individual from Mauritania to attend English Language Training and to attend the "Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism" Regional Seminar in Ghana. Following his training, this individual was promoted to the position of Cabinet Director. He has kept in contact with the USG by providing interpretation and translation service to his Chief of Staff during a SOCEUR assessment mission conducted in Mauritania and continuing to be a main point of contact for the U.S. Defense Attaché Office in Nouakchott.

- In September 2006, CTFP funded a Defense Institute of International Legal Studies seminar in Brazaaville. More than 60 participants from both the Democratic Republic of Congo (DROC) and the Republic of Congo (ROC) attended the one-week seminar. This was the first time DROC and ROC met to discuss their common problems of border/maritime security, money laundering, and terrorism. The event helped both countries understand how they can work together to fight terrorists that cross national boundaries.
- CTFP funded a mobile seminar on “Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism” in Morocco, which was attended by 50 personnel from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of National Defense, and other ministries and agencies. Following the success of this event, a regional seminar of the Maghreb Union countries is proposed for FY07. It will be the first of its kind.
- In FY06, CTFP funded a Center for Civil Military Relations Regional Seminar in Ghana at the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Center (KAIPTC) in Accra. 12 African countries sent 46 military officers and civilian officials to the event, providing a wide array of views and experience within the region.
- CTFP funded the U.S.-Poland training workshop titled “Countering the Psychology of Terrorism,” which opened on September 11, 2006, in Warsaw. The one-week long training was provided by the U.S. Defense Institute for Medical Operations (DIMO) in collaboration with the Polish Military Institute of Health Services. Fifty mental health professionals from the Polish Armed Forces, Police, Fire Service, and Border Guards participated. U.S. Ambassador to Poland, Victor Ashe, attended the opening.
- A Turkish Land Forces Major began the 18-month Naval Postgraduate School Master’s Program in FY06. Upon his completion, he will be promoted to teach at the NATO Center of Excellence for the Defense Against Terrorism in Ankara. Turkey is also participating in the CTFP flagship CT Fellows program at the National Defense University. In addition, Turkey sent participants to the Baku-Tblisi-Ceyhan Pipeline conference held in Azerbaijan and to the CIST Conference at the Marshall Center.
- In the USSOUTHCOM, CTFP continues to stress combating terrorism education by funding tailored mobile courses. There were five combating terrorism courses in USSOUTHCOM, of which two were regional events. The regional events were hosted by Uruguay (with eight nations attending) and El Salvador (with four nations attending). The remaining three courses were tailor-made for Colombia, Nicaragua, and Peru. Additionally, Colombia also conducted a mobile course assessment in preparation for an event in FY07.
- In FY06, CTFP funded three courses not previously taught in the USSOUTHCOM AOR. The Defense Institute of International Legal Studies (DIILS) spearheaded a regional event, “Legal Aspects of Combating Terrorism,” in Peru with six nations attending. DIMO taught a regional event, “Medical Responses to Terrorist Activity,” with eight nations in attendance. The Center for Civil Military Relations (CCMR) presented a country-specific course in Colombia entitled “Intelligence in Democracy.”

- The U.S. Coast Guard conducted two regional events on “Port Security and Vulnerability.” The regional events were hosted by El Salvador, with seven nations in attendance, and in Chile, with three nations in attendance. In addition, the U.S. Coast Guard also worked specifically with the Argentine Prefectura Nacional de Argentina (Coast Guard equivalent) and conducted “Port Security and Vulnerability” and “Advance Boarding” courses.
- CTFP-funded events in Bangladesh targeting Maritime Forces, including in-country training courses with the U.S. Coast Guard and the Naval Small Craft Instruction and Technical Training School (NAVSCIATTS). Bangladesh’s long coast line, porous border, and numerous tributaries provide unique transit opportunities for terrorists and criminal activity within this predominantly Muslim country, and it will increase in importance in the GWOT over the coming years.
- Malaysia conducted the first Hostage Negotiation Course to be held in the region. Numerous other countries had previously inquired into this kind of mobile training course and, due to its success, we expect others will now also request this valuable training. The Mobile Training Team was given by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, marking the first time USPACOM has used CTFP to fund training with the Bureau.
- Cambodia has had minimal opportunity to assist in the Global War on Terror. This lack of engagement is due in large part to the deficit in English Language skills brought on by years of sanctions and International Military Education and Training (IMET) restrictions. This year, Cambodia received special permission to use CTFP dollars to fund an English Language training course. As a result of this training, Cambodia was able to send two students to the fall “Comprehensive Security Responses to Terrorism” course and one student to the “Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism” course.
- In FY06, CTFP funded multiple events that built upon all aspects of Indonesia’s counter terrorism capabilities. Typical courses included Maritime Officer courses, International Military Law courses, and courses for Intelligence Offices. Indonesia conducted three mobile courses this year, including a Boarding Officer course and a Defense Institute of International Legal Studies (DIILS) seminar. They also conducted their first mobile training course with Defense Institute of Medical Operations (DIMO) on disaster planning, a suitable preparation tool in view of Indonesia’s terrorism threats.
- Nepal applied to USPACOM for discretionary dollars to fund a number of training events. Of particular importance was a Center for Civil-Military Relations in-country seminar targeting senior military leaders of the Nepalese Army as they integrate newly inducted female Military Police into their ranks and try to minimize allegations of human rights violations, in hopes of lifting U.S. restrictions on engagements.
- CTFP helped create the first-ever East Africa and South West Indian Ocean Maritime Security Conference targeting the terrorist transit and criminal activity routes on the “geographic seam” between three Combatant Command (COCOM) AORs. USPACOM worked with USEUCOM and USCENTCOM to provide funding for this valuable initiative, making this the first ever tri-COCOM seminar.

- CTFP provided funding for the second Tri-Lateral Maritime Security Initiative focused on the Tri-Border region between Malaysia, Indonesia, and the Philippines. The workshop was held in the region at the Southeast Asia Center for Counter Terrorism (SEARCCT) and brought together major players from all three countries to conduct a table-top exercise focused on known terrorist movement between the three countries.
- In FY06, CTFP funded a Medical in-country seminar in Lebanon. More than 50 students attended the event and received training in Advanced Trauma and Combat Casualty counterterrorism/combatting terrorism scenarios.
- CTFP funded a mobile seminar on “Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism” in Kenya, which was attended by 45 personnel from the Ministry of Interior, Ministry of National Defense, and other ministries and agencies. The participants in the course are critical to the ability of Kenya to enhance control of border and coastal regions.

2. ACCOMPLISHMENTS - CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

- In FY06, CTFP’s flagship course, the CT Fellows program at the National Defense University, transitioned from an 8-month program to a 10-month Master’s curriculum program. The program is undergoing Master’s degree accreditation through the Department of Education, with degree-granting authority expected in October 2007. Once the CT Fellows program is accredited, it is expected that even more countries will express interest in sending students to the program.
- USSOUTHCOM worked with the Center for Civil Military Relations (CCMR) to develop a new course curriculum designed specifically for the Southern Cone regions for training in Countering Ideological Support for Terrorism (CIST).
- With CTFP-provided funds, the Joint Special Operations University (JSOU) finalized development of the Special Operations Combating Terrorism Course (SOCbT). The pilot course held in August 2006 was a tremendous success. The course provides a modularized, flexible curriculum for use by the U.S. special operations community to reach out to international special operations partners in the Global War on Terrorism (GWOT). CTFP also provided support to JSOU to modify the SOCbT curriculum to allow the course to be delivered via non-residence seminars in FY07.
- In FY06, CTFP funded the development of a “Women in Terrorism Organizations” Module for the Marshall Center's Program on Terrorism and Security Studies (PTSS) Course. The new module's curriculum will cover the role of women within contemporary terrorist organizations and address, among other things, the subject of female suicide bombers. The module will be completed in FY07.

3. ACCOMPLISHMENTS - REGIONAL CENTER INITIATIVES

- The Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies (APCSS) partnered with the Southeast Asia Center for Counter Terrorism (SEARCCT) to host a regional in-country seminar focused on cyber-terrorism. The event was funded by CTFP and focused on terrorist use of the internet. Participants were from Malaysia, Cambodia, Philippines, Thailand, and Japan (self-funded). Indonesia was also invited but was unable to send participants.
- CTFP funded two joint Marshall Center and Near East South Asia (NESA) Center “Afghanistan-Pakistan Confidence Building Seminars” that brought together high-level participants from Afghanistan and Pakistan on neutral ground to discuss issues of mutual interest in the Global War on Terrorism. The seminars helped to build confidence and trust in the among Afghan-Pakistani officers engaged in the fight against terrorism, which in turn supports U.S. operations in Afghanistan. A third follow-on seminar is scheduled for FY07.
- The CTFP-funded “Combating Ideological Support for Terrorism (CIST)” conference at the Marshall Center provided a venue for promoting substantive dialogue among professionals representing Western and Muslim nations on countering ideological support for terrorism. Discussions created a greater appreciation among participants of the ideological dimension in a successful global CbT strategy.
- The Center for Hemispheric Defense Studies (CHDS) conducted the CTFP-funded Interagency Coordination & Combating Terrorism (ICCT) seminar in Washington, D.C. for 72 participants from 20 Latin American countries from June 5-23, 2006. The ICCT seminar focused on expanding the awareness and understanding of the importance of interagency coordination in order to improve international collaboration and domestic management of security affairs as it relates to combating terrorism within the Western Hemisphere and more specifically Latin America.

F. PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVES

As the CTFP matures and evolves, OASD SO/LIC, in coordination with DoD and interagency partners, is pursuing initiatives to improve and enhance the program:

- 1) Maintaining and Honing Combating Terrorism Focus: To ensure that the CTFP maintains its focus on combating terrorism education and training, OASD SO/LIC is assessing the courses CTFP has funded since the inception of the program. This assessment will result in a list of recommended courses that Combatant Commands can use when developing CTFP-funded engagement strategies. It will also serve to identify which courses could be improved to better meet CTFP's evolving requirements.
- 2) Quadrennial Defense Review Alignment (QDR): CTFP will focus efforts on aligning the program in accordance with guidance from the 2006 QDR, as well as ensuring that the program's engagement strategy is in support of key DoD documents. This will ensure that the program continues to provide targeted combating terrorism education to critical partner nations, which will not only result in CTFP becoming a more effective tool in GWOT strategy, but it will also have a positive impact on those partner nation's ability to cooperate with the United States in the war on terrorism.
- 3) Synchronizing CTFP With DoD's Capacity Building Efforts: As part of the reorganization of the Office of the Secretary of Defense for Policy, CTFP will be relocated in the Office of Building Partnership Capability. This organizational shift is part of DoD's effort to synchronize the Department's outreach efforts in the war on terrorism. CTFP will be better positioned to complement and reinforce DoD's overall capacity building efforts.

G. SUMMARY

The CTFP has become a valuable tool in the fight against terrorism and fills a crucial void in U.S. efforts to provide targeted international combating terrorism education. Building on previous efforts, the CTFP made significant strides during Fiscal Year 2006 to develop and reinforce the combating terrorism capabilities of our partner nations, and to strengthen a global network of combating terrorism experts committed to the fight against terrorists and terrorist organizations. Combating terrorism education and training have proven to be a strategic tool in the war on terrorism that effectively supplements the efforts of regional combatant commanders in accomplishing their missions.

II. COUNTRY TRAINING ACTIVITIES

The following tables present a breakout of individual CTFP-funded education and training activities. The tables are assembled in alphabetical order, by country, and by respective combatant command regions. The information is further sub-categorized by training activity (i.e., Army, Air Force, Maritime, and non-Military Department activities).

1. READING THE DATA

- Most data in the report is as of October 1, 2006.
- The training activities and dollar amounts include funds expended to support all course costs, travel and living allowances paid, and medical expenditures. The FY06 dollars and training reported DO NOT reflect the FY06 CTFP allocation level for each country because CTFP funds were re-allocated throughout the year, based on under-performing countries and unanticipated needs.
- Total course costs reflect the respective schools' advertised course costs (e.g., tuition and books) and estimated travel and living costs. Actual country total costs may vary depending on fluctuations in travel costs and living allowances and medical expenditures.
- Country participation in CTFP-funded Regional Center activities is listed in the country charts below. Country participation is listed without specific dollar amounts attached. CTFP-funding for Regional Center activities, including country participation, is fully accounted for in Section A "DoD Regional Centers" below.
- Non-military department activities reported include: Regional Center initiatives, other combatant command activities, and administrative costs.
- A list of acronyms used in the following tables can be found in Section G.
